The History of the Remarkable Life of John Sheppard (Dodo Press): Daniel Defoe (1659/1661-1731) Was An English Writer, Journalist And Spy, Who Gained ... Crusoe (1719). Defoe Is Notable For Being One

Daniel Defoe (1659/1661-1731) was an English writer, journalist and spy, who gained enduring fame for his novel Robinson Crusoe (1719). Defoe is notable for being one of the earliest practitioners of the novel and helped popularise the genre in Britain. In some texts he is even referred to as one of the founders, if not the founder, of the English novel. A prolific and versatile writer, he wrote over five hundred books, pamphlets, and journals on various topics (including politics, crime, religion, marriage, psychology and the supernatural). He is also a pioneer of economic journalism.
