

Neer-Do-Well Knits: Make a Little Trouble

You cant be good all the time. It would be exhausting. Worse yet, it would be boring. I firmly believe we all need to make a little trouble from time to time. But just because you re up to no good doesnt mean you don t want to look great. Whether you re taking a walk on the wrong side of the tracks, persuading that lock to click open, clambering in through a conveniently open window, or just stirring up mischief, these six patterns (three socks, two mitts, and a hat) will make sure you re doing it in style. And if pulling out your knitting happens to make you look innocent and unassuming to any members of the local constabulary who might come strolling by in the middle of your adventures well, thats just an added bonus!
